DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 6-8 and 10-13 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, 11 and 13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,463,195 to Sasaki et al. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all of the subject matter of the claims of the present application are described in the claims of U.S. Patent No. 6,463,195 except for describing the component as a polarization beam splitter (PBS) or a polarization beam combiner. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use a PBS for the component as described in U.S. Patent No. 6,463,195 (see Col 1 Lns 17-26, Col 2 Lns 20-28, Col 2 Lns 53-65, Col 3 Lns 41-58, Col 9 Lns 50-60 and Col 10 Lns 49-56).

Conclusion

3. Prior art documents submitted by applicant in the Information Disclosure Statement filed on 11 February 2003 have all been considered and made of record (note the attached copy of form PTO-1449).
